LONDON, UK - 4 November 2026 - Vandercom Films announces a SIFFA 2026 in-competition screening of Joel Van der Molen's Gipsy Kings featuring Tonino Baliardo at Vue London Piccadilly on Friday 20 November at 6pm GMT. A global YouTube premiere of the documentary is scheduled for the same time.

The London event will take place in Screen 1 at Vue London Piccadilly, 19 Lower Regent Street, London SW1Y 4LR. The festival programme includes a screening followed by a cinema Q&A, with the event listed from 6pm to 7.40pm. Tickets and the latest programme information are available through SIFFA's official programme and booking page.

The 71-minute documentary follows guitarist and composer Tonino Baliardo and the family behind his music, exploring how Catalan Romani heritage is passed between generations. Interviews, archive material and performances bring audiences closer to the people and relationships behind the public stage.

Screening, viewing & press

Baliardo is joined on screen by his sons Mikael and Cosso. Family, cultural identity and the work of preserving a musical tradition sit at the centre of the film. It is an opportunity to encounter a familiar sound through the people who continue to shape it.

Van der Molen returns to SIFFA following Gypsy Billionaire, for which he received the festival's 2023 President Award. This latest film continues his interest in people, identity and the stories behind public recognition.

For audiences beyond London, the official Vandercom Media YouTube premiere page is scheduled for 20 November at 6pm GMT. Viewers can visit the page in advance and set a reminder where available. The online event is a premiere of the documentary; the cinema Q&A forms part of the London screening programme.

Existing digital viewing options are also listed on Vandercom Films' official website, which directs audiences to UK, US and other international services. Viewers should check the appropriate platform for their territory. Pricing, access and availability are set by each service and may vary by location.
